Dear Mr. Thompson;

Please accept my deepest appreciation to you, Art, and the other employees of Arbo's Wrecker Service for the use of your facility for training the 88th Municipal/County Basic Police School. We are aware that being a host city to the Academy, we call on various agencies for assistance in our quest for top quality training. Use of your facility for crimes in progress training is essential to our program in preparing officers for appropriate and safe response the dangerous situations. Your support does not go unnoticed to the Academy staff. Once again, thank you and your staff very much for your assistance.

Sincerely,
